Clarification of News Report

We write with regards to you letter dated 19 October 2015 requesting clarification on the news article entitled "Macay shelves stock offering" published in the October 17, 2015 issue of the Manila Bulletin. The article reported in part that:

"Macay Holdings, Inc., a bottler of soda drinks, said it has put its $100-200-million secondary share sale on hold as investors were unwilling to pay the valuations it was seeking. 'The valuation is unattractive and we are not in a hurry to sell anyway,' Chairman Alfredo Yao told Reuters yesterday. Yao said investors were only willing to buy at price-to-earnings multiples of 14-18 times, below the current ratio of 26 times. The deal may be launched early next year if the local stock market improves, according to Thomson Reuters publication IFR. . . ."

In a disclosure by Macay Holdings Inc, ("Macay" or "the Company") last October 1, 2015 the Company relayed that its primary shareholder Mazy's Capital Inc. ("Mazy's") was evaluating the feasibility of a secondary offer. The above-mentioned Manila Bulletin article is a disclosure by Mazy's chairman, Alfredo Yao, regarding the postponement of the secondary offer to when market conditions improve.

We trust that the foregoing clarifies the matter.
