Clarification of News Report

We write with regards to you letter dated 1 December 2015 requesting clarification on the news article entitled "ARC building 2 factories to boost beverage capacity" posted in The Standard (Internet Edition) on November 27, 2015. The article reported in part that:

"ARC Refreshments, the exclusive distributor of RC Cola products in the Philippines owned by Macay Holdings Inc., said Friday it plans to build two manufacturing facilities by 2017 or 2018 to expand its capacity by 20 percent.

Macay Holdings chief operating officer Gerardo Garcia said the planned expansion would be in line with the company's strategy of growing its business faster than the industry's growth.

Meanwhile, the company said it was also preparing for the planned expansion in other Southeast Asian markets, particularly Vietnam and Myanmar.

.....
The company is scouting for acquisitions and partners that will allow the company to expand its beverage offerings and venture into the food business as part of the plan to become a consumer-focused holding firm in the next five years, Garcia said.

Garcia said Macay Holdings' planned $200-million secondary share sale was deferred because of current market conditions.

The company was originally set to conduct the share sale in the fourth quarter to widen its public float, but market conditions turned volatile due to possible rise in US interest rates.

Macay Holdings said it would review the share sale plan next year. The company hired HSBC, Deutsche Bank and Credit Swiss as underwriters for the offering....."

Macay Holdings, Inc. ("Macay Holdings" or "the Company") wishes to clarify the following matters:

First, Gerry Garcia is ARC Refreshments Corporation's ("ARC") EVP and COO, he is also a member of Macay Holding's Board of Directors. ARC is a subsidiary of Macay Holdings. Mr. Garcia confirmed ARC's plans to expand capacity with two manufacturing facilities by 2017 and/or 2018.

Second, on the afore-mentioned statements regarding the contemplated plans of Macay Holdings to expand its beverage business overseas and diversify its portfolio, these remain preliminary and remain subject to board and regulatory approvals.

Finally, on the afore-mentioned statements regarding the contemplated secondary share sale, the Company disclosed in October 1, 2015 that Macay Holding's primary shareholder Mazy's Capital Inc. ("Mazy's") was evaluating the feasibility of a secondary offer and Mazy's engaged Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, and HSBC to sound off potential investors for this transaction. Then in October 20, 2015 the Company clarified that it was Mazy's chairman, Alfredo M. Yao, who disclosed the postponement of the secondary offer to when market conditions improve.

We trust that the foregoing clarifies the matter.

Thank you.
